profile

Steve Michoulas is a partner in McMillan's Commercial Real Estate and Transportation Industry groups. He has over 15 years experience in corporate/commercial law with an emphasis on real estate, infrastructure, and international business ventures.

Prior to rejoining McMillan in 2018, Steve spent 8½ years at the Vancouver Airport Authority (YVR) as Director, Legal Services. At YVR, Steve was entrusted with overseeing virtually all of the Airport Authority's legal affairs, which included major real estate developments, construction projects, debenture financings, commercial transactions, innovation and the commercialization of such innovation both in domestic and foreign jurisdictions, the licensing of third party operators, and management of a major piece of Competition Act litigation.

Steve is an expert in the airport space and currently sits on the Legal Steering Committee of Airports Council International (NA), the largest airport trade association in North America. He is a frequent speaker at international airport conferences, including events hosted by the Worldwide Airport Lawyers Association, ACI (NA) and the Colombian Chamber of Infrastructure.

Steve's broad skill set and his deep understanding of what clients want and need out of their legal counsel allows him to give practical, timely and strategic legal advice to his clients.
