

Lucy Williams

Vancouver

236.826.3062

lucy.williams@mcmillan.ca

education and year of call

- Called to the British Columbia bar - 2019
- National Committee on Accreditation, Certificate of Qualification - 2018
- University of Manchester, LL.M Intellectual Property Law - 2011
- University of Manchester, LL.B (Hons) - 2010

practice areas

employment law

employment litigation

litigation

profile

Lucy is an associate in McMillan's Advocacy & Employment Group, where she is building a general litigation practice. Lucy has represented clients and assisted senior counsel in matters before the B.C. Labour Relations Board, the B.C. Human Rights Tribunal, the B.C. Supreme Court and the B.C. Provincial Court.

Prior to joining McMillan, Lucy completed her articles at a global law firm in downtown Vancouver. She received her LL.B (Hons) and LL.M from the University of Manchester, England. During law school, Lucy volunteered as a Student Advisor at the University of Manchester Legal Advice Centre.

publications

March 24, 2020

BC Government Announces Important Changes to the Employment Standards Act in Response to COVID-19
Employment and Labour Bulletin

March 2020

The Tort of Conversion in the Electronic Age: A Case Study
Litigation Bulletin