profile

Don Waters is a partner in the firm's Financial Services Group. Don's practice is focused on corporate debt finance and structured finance transactions, including asset based lending, syndicated lending, cross-border debt financings, securitization and project finance transactions.

Don's experience in corporate debt financing transactions includes leading syndicated, bilateral, club, domestic and cross-border debt financings, debtor-in-possession financings and infrastructure projects for financial institutions, borrowers, syndicates and private equity sponsors.

Don routinely acts in securitization and structured finance matters on behalf of sellers, financial institutions, asset providers, swap counterparties, liquidity providers and servicers in securitization transactions with respect to a variety of asset classes, including commercial and residential mortgages, trade receivables, collateralized debt obligations, personal credit lines and vehicle loans and leases.

Don is co-chair of the firm's Japan practice group and acts for a number of Japanese financial institutions and corporations. From 1996 to 1997 Don worked at the Japanese firm of Anderson Mori & Tomotsune in Tokyo.
