profile

- Partner as of 1992
- Managing Partner of the firm's Ottawa office, 2005-2012
- Member of the firm's Advocacy and Commercial Litigation Group. Practice areas include, civil, commercial, product liability, environmental, complex family law and regulatory litigation.

Michael is a Senior Litigation Counsel with extensive representation at trial and appellate levels as well as administrative tribunals, mediations and arbitrations.

In his litigation practice, Michael covers a broad range of areas, including procurement litigation, commercial and corporate and shareholder disputes, product liability and environmental contamination actions, defamation and tort actions, fraud and insolvency cases.

Michael's family law practice focuses on complex financial disputes involving divorce, child and spousal support, property settlement, and domestic contracts.

For several years, he was a member of the firm's Supreme Court of Canada Practice Group conducting agency and counsel work at the Supreme Court. He assisted and provided strategic advice on applications for leave to appeal, appeals and motions.

Practicing a philosophy that "to be successful one must possess strong people skills in addition to strong legal skills", Michael is a patient listener who communicates clearly and concisely with empathy and concern. Beyond the substantive law, he endeavours to understand and address the needs of his clients in case guidance.

Michael distinguishes himself, not only with his exceptional and broad-based background, but also in the way he manages each file uniquely. With dedication, he strategizes innovative approaches to avoid the courtroom where possible. When cases do go to court, Michael challenges and leads with determination and conviction. He is well respected and recognized for his considerable achievements in highly contentious proceedings in all areas of his expertise.

Michael provides mentoring to students and associates, and is frequently called upon to be a resource for others in the firm in unique and highly complex matters.
