overview

Doing business, whether domestically or globally, in large organizations or small, engages the ever-present risk of disputes.

When disputes arise, companies need skilled, intelligent and experienced legal representation to protect their commercial interests, brands, and, in some case, the very future of their businesses.

McMillan has extensive experience representing clients in all manner of business disputes. Our litigators understand the business issues underlying disputes, and work aggressively and strategically to achieve your goals—including the need to resolve disputes efficiently and cost-effectively. We are seasoned experts in negotiation, mediation, arbitration and litigation.

With offices across Canada, and domestically- and internationally-recognized litigators, we work hard to deliver the best possible results—whether in the form of an early settlement or a successful court or arbitration ruling.
